Fake Staples Order email SCAM!

2021-04-06 - Don Guilbeault - Comments (0) - General

Please be advised that there is another SCAM / PHISHING email going around that claims your Staples Purchase was successful and to open the attachment with a provided code to confirm your order. This email is a SCAM please delete and do NOT open the attachment.

Key identifying features that this is a scam:

1. Senders email address is not from Staples
2. You will never be emailed an excel attachment as an invoice
3. .xlsb is a macro'd enable attachment which are almost always built to execute a script, most likely an encryption script that installs Ransomware
4. The Staples Logo is not correct

Remember to always be mindful of any unsolicited emails with attachments.
