ZIP Attachment SCAM

2022-03-24 - Don Guilbeault - Comments (0) - General

Please note: There is another SCAM email going around that has a .ZIP email attachment that references some kind of Invoice then a password to access the malicious ZIP file.

DO NOT Open the ZIP file.

Remember no one will ever send you a ZIP file as an attachment. SCAMMERS are using this process to bypass new Microsoft security policies that prevent the emailing of word / excel documents with macros.

Please delete these scam emails and also delete them from your deleted items.
